†.Original notice of the Question was received in Hindi.

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether it is a fact that the Centre has considered the recommendations of the Law Commission; and

(d) whether Government have now decided to introduce any Bill in this behalf?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI CHENNAMANENI VIDYA SAGAR RAO): (a) to (d) The Government had referred the Foreigners (Amendment) Bill, 1998 to the Law Commission seeking its recommendations. The Law Commission gave its report in September, 2000. The main suggestions made by the Commission with regard to detection and deportation of illegal migrants in the country included establishment of Immigration Tribunals, establishment of Special Courts, creation of a separate Immigration Cadre, enhancement of penalty of imprisonment for the violation of the provisions of the Foreigners Act from the existing maximum of five years to eight years.

The Government has accepted the recommendation relating to enhancement of penalty which already finds a place in the Foreigners (Amendment) Bill, 1998. Government has not felt it necessary to imcorporate the other amendments. It has, therefore, been decided to pursue the Bill already introduced in the Rajya Sabha.
